RP celebrates World Food Day & World Rural Women's Day

MANILA (AP) —

World Food Day '87 presents the RIGHT TO FOOD.
On the Spot Farmer Making, enter, and other activities

The Department of Agriculture (DA) today celebrated World Food Day (WFD) and World Rural Women's Day (WRWD) with a series of activities in Manila and other parts of the country.

The WFD activities were held at the DA Office in Manila, where a series of seminars, workshops, and discussions were conducted. The WRWD activities were held in various rural areas, where farmers and women were encouraged to participate in various activities, including the making of spot farmers, enter, and other activities.

The DA Secretary, Gen. Romeo Prudente, said that the celebration of WFD and WRWD is a testament to the commitment of the DA to the welfare of the Filipino people, particularly the farmers and women in the rural areas.

He said that the DA is committed to ensuring that the Filipino people have access to food and that the women in the rural areas have the opportunity to participate in the development of the country.

The DA is also committed to ensuring that the Filipino people have access to the services and facilities that they need, particularly in the rural areas.

Leviste asks CA to reconsider ruling

Cites lack of strong evidence to back murder charge vs him

By Lito S. Salazar

MANILA (INQUIRER) — In a bid to overturn a conviction for the murder of a woman, a lawyer has asked the Court of Appeals to reconsider its ruling. The lawyer, who is representing the accused, argued that the evidence against his client is weak and that the conviction is based on circumstantial evidence.

SMC finalizes $1.2-B loan

By Thomas H. Johnson
 SMC Corp. has secured a $1.2-billion loan from the Federal Reserve Bank of New York to help finance the company's expansion program. The loan, which is part of a larger $2.5-billion credit facility, will be used to fund the company's acquisition of other businesses and to expand its manufacturing facilities. SMC Corp. is a leading manufacturer of industrial machinery and is based in New York City.

The loan was approved by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York's Board of Directors. The bank is one of the 12 regional Federal Reserve Banks that make up the Federal Reserve System. The loan is a significant financial boost for SMC Corp. and will help the company to continue its growth and expansion.
